STAFF LOST

Hey!!! Where did everybody go?

At the beginning of the year we asked for help. We said we needed reporters, photographers, and anyone interested in newspaper work. We said we needed staff. We called a meeting.

Sixty people turned out to the first meeting.

Sixty people were divided into three groups, one for each of the three editions we publish weekly, and we were happy because we had a large staff.

So far we have lost most of these people.

The Pub is empty and lonely.

Where did they all get to?

Only the ones who stayed to work. Only the ones who stayed.

Pep Meet Homecoming

The King's IV, acclaimed showbusiness today, will have a Meet.

Composed of George Ciciulla and Bill Karam, the Meet.

They have appeared on network TV shows, and the Red Skelton shows, and they are all stars. They also appeared on the Murray Close and the
